

Stall Street Journal

© 2008 The Power of Choice Publishing

Issue 5, Volume 4

The MAJORITY of students SEEK the power to make healthy choices.

EDFGTAVNUISREOLPIZACESWQWSE
DCZATGVDEMLPERJU IHNMILESROP
LEAEWJGBIMERTCVWSDXOLPJUNOA
EZMQAFFIRMINGEIODEWAZQTONL
KJCM AOQDLKIUN IOPWNHFGDEUEC
ERIOFBQWR PEUINLWIPRNWQAZXCO
ETEIGMGIOTEIJGOKAPLBERJLIUOH
RUIRLSWARITYMYFROLRIUGJ WMLO
FORFTUYIEAMSWEDCBOULAPQWCFL
EZFEUKMOLRFTIUSAZXCEOIDXOLPF
KNEKWTQUIVPIODEPOWERWQXCIR
ODKOU DRBJLPWSDBNHUJREW CXZSE
MPOMEMPWQATFGEDCVGUJIOSPDEE
SM SJNFDERPOLWSXCBGYUNHJKEW
CSFROLJU YTVNMBEDQWSP OELRXRT

Source: April 2007 survey of all (12,097) District 203 and 204 High School Students - The Power of Choice is a project of NCO Youth & Family Services, Naperville School District #203, Indian Prairie School District #204, Breaking Free, Inc., the Naperville Police Department, DuPage County Health Department, Linden Oaks at Edward, Lisle Township Youth & Family Services, Heritage YMCA Group, KidsMatter, Provena Mercy Hospital, and District #203 & #204 Parents. Survey and data analysis provided by the University of Illinois Center for Prevention Research and Development. Funded in part by the Department of Human Services.

